- I. Moses the servant of the Lord was great.
 - A. In delivering the word of the Lord.
 - B. In building the word of the Lord.
 - C. His greatness was because he was faithful.
 - D. His greatness was because of his service.
 - E. But Moses at his best and height was only a servant as are we.

- II. Jesus was faithful as a Son.
 - A. We must recognize His deity.
 - B. Jesus did the greatest of all work in building His Church.
 - C. Jesus faithfulness to God and love for the Church cost Him dearly.
 - D. Jesus was faithful in service and God has given Him a name above all.
 - E. Not only was Jesus unique but His Church is unique as well.

- III. Don’t grieve God.
 - A. When one hardens their heart it grieves God.
 - B. Israel grieved God and perished in the wilderness.
 - C. If we grieve God by our unbelief we will perish.
 - D. Even the truly born again will be chastised if they do not have complete faith.
 - E. In faith we are to serve as long as we walk this earth.

- IV. Exhort one another.
 - A. Example of encouraging and pushing one another in sports.
 - B. Don’t just be concerned about yourself be concerned about the Church.
 - C. Those who begin in faith are to continue in faith.
 - D. We are to be partakers of Christ.

How great are you in the Kingdom of God?
