It's As Good As Yours

1 John 5:13-15

Life is a battle ground, not a playing ground.

There is something about reality that makes you realize that even though something might seem appealing or enchanting, but as soon as you try to grasp it, it's gone.

Having fellowship is being able to communicate with him.

We walk in his mercy and everything we claim is ours in God's name.

If we are confident that we know that God is listening when we pray, everything is as good as ours.

Do not take matters into your own hands because the greatest problem that might arise in your life, God is by your side.

The devil is not playing. The enemy has you under attack and he comes to steal, kill, and destroy. You need to stay on your knees when you are praying until you get an answer.

How do you know if God is listening

Sometimes you see some stuff that you don't want to see and then you have to immediately take it to God. Prayer closes a predicament.

Romans 8:26

Sometimes we don't know what to pray for. We lack power due to lack of concentration and wondering thoughts, and emotional shifts, and what the future holds for.

Draw near to God and he will draw near to you.

Know how to pray in desperate times. Lord I need you to help me and you said in your word that you would keep me perfect peace.

1.) Prayer many times poses a "Predicament."

2.) Prayer must possess a "Faith Component." There needs to be a confidence in God even through the worst of times. Don't give up, don't give in, just stay in there and God will bring you through the situation because you can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

3.) Prayer must present a "Bold" quality. Hebrews 4:16

You can call God boldly and deliberately but not out of respect for him to deliver you. Prayer should not be winey. That's why you bring your problems to God boldly. Address your faults to him. Carry victory in your words with God. Ask God how he wants you to walk with him and how to carry out your purpose. I will overcome the powers of the devil because God has already seen me through it all.

Whose name are you wearing? I am more than a conqueror. Greater is he that is in than he who is in the world. Act like a soldier of God.

4.) Prayer must assume a "Position of Authority. How are you going to talk to your father but do nothing but wine and complain? I am still standing even though I have stumbled, lost some things I did not want to lose, let go some things and didn't want to let go, change certain ways and behaviors I did not want to, disassociate myself from some people I did not want to, had some faults, misunderstandings, made some wrong decisions, associated with the wrong crowd, but I am still standing because I have assumed my Authority through God, who has already seen me through just as long as I keep believing in him all of the time.

Realize what Authority you have through God.

Those that are on their knees with prayer, the time is now. Today is the day I stop walking in misery, today is the day I walk with success, in favor, with a plan and execute it, today I walk in strength and stability, confidence and trust in God. Today is the last day you stop pretending God has not already paved the way for you to succeed and win all of your battles through him. God will make it good today. If you have that feeling like you should make that change or get out and do something, God will make it good today.

Be careful of the people you hook up with. Leave those people alone and stop clinging on to them and letting them cling onto you and drain you like a leech. Now is that time to make that change. Look for people with ingenuity, strength, energy, integrity, faith, and favor from God.

The enemy shall not steal my finances, my loved ones, my sanity, my faith. Every false stealing the devil puts into your mind, heart, and emotions is a lie because I walk in authority and favor through God because through him it is as good as mines.

Start claiming your miracle, your blessings, your breakthrough, your job, your dreams and visions because it is as good as yours.

The enemy might try to come in one way, but the enemy must flee seven ways because you have been given Authority through God.

If you want to humor God, tell him your plan because he has already seen you through it far more than you can possibly imagine with abundance and security. Learn how to pray until you hear from God for all of your decisions and actions. God will do things for you in excellence. If God is before me, than who can be against me.
