

40 Days of Faith from the Wilderness

Not being bewildered when tested or tempted ~

Faith that overcomes temptation

Luke 4:1-14

Sermon by Rob Davis, February 19, 2012

Why Lent?

What were three really important things that Jesus accomplished in allowing Satan to tempt him?

1. We will be tempted

2. Jesus is the second Adam

1 Corinthians 15:45.

3. Israelites failed in the wilderness. Jesus did not. The Israelites spent 40 years in the wilderness; Jesus spent 40 days in the wilderness

Bible Study

✠ Is Satan the ruler of the world today? John 12:31, John 14:30, John 16:11, Revelations 13:2

✠ Jesus resisted Satan by quoting from Deuteronomy 8:3, 6:13, 6:16. (read these sections)

A Verse to Remember

John 6: 35 Jesus replied, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry again. Whoever believes in me will never be thirsty."

A Spiritual Growth Challenge

If you are being tempted, pray.

James 4:7 So humble yourselves before God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Ask God what this would look like in your situation.
